

The Job Care Group Presents The 7 Habits of Highly Effective Job Seekers

Wednesday, August 11th, 2010, 7:00pm at the

Grace Baptist Church

22833 Copper Hill, Santa Clarita, CA 91350

You are invited to join us for this highly interactive, motivational, practical and fun presentation. You will learn:

- ❖ How being proactive is the cornerstone of an effective job search.
- ❖ How to create a vision of the ideal job and work towards it.
- ❖ How putting first things first will guide you towards your vision.
- ❖ How to develop and apply a win/win attitude when working with others.
- ❖ How seeking first to understand, then to be understood will improve your communication with potential employers.
- ❖ How synergizing with others can move you closer to being hired.
- ❖ How to continuously re-create yourself, helping you to avoid job loss in the future.

This presentation will be facilitated by Kevin Panet, a Human Resource professional with over 20 years of business experience, and member of PIHRA (Professionals in Human Resources Association). Kevin was certified and licensed by the Franklin-Covey Institute to facilitate the 3-day "7 Habits of Highly Effective People" courses in 1994, and has trained thousands of people in these enduring principles at locations across the United States. At this event, Kevin will guide attendees on a voyage of discovery, detailing how the 7 Habits can aid job seekers in their quest for gainful employment.
